Dear all,

Thank you for nominating students for the "Com Bank Hackathon Challenge" aimed at developing the Sighlish GPT model. To update the progress, the "Com Bank Hackathon Challenge" website has been launched and is now open for participant registration until May 31st.

Pls appreciate it if you could advise nominated teams to register via the Challenge website : [URL] <https://hackolosseum.apixplatform.com/h1/combank-singpt>

- The team lead needs to register their team on the above mentioned challenge website URL.
- All necessary registration details can be found in the "how to register" section located at the bottom of the webpage.
- There will be an online introduction session in the first week of June to educate participants. Registered teams will receive further details post-registration
- Sharing here with the challenge-related flyer and a video (https://youtu.be/SJqHDvDf6eg?si=zZ_Tm2JHc8xG8fMF) for further details and for circulation .

We sincerely appreciate your enthusiasm and urge you to encourage teams to register at their earliest convenience before the deadline.

Pls reach out to Mr. Jayan Madushanka at jayan_madusanka@combank.net for any further information or clarification, (if any)

We look forward to an exciting Hackathon Challenge ahead.

The poster for the ComBank Hackathon Challenge features a futuristic theme with a blue and green color scheme. At the top left, a stylized astronaut in a white suit is shown floating, surrounded by glowing green and blue lines. The background is dark blue with faint, glowing binary code (0s and 1s) and some technical code snippets like 'info.get', 'clock = int(fo', 'memory usage = ro', 'get usage', 'ar = gpu', 'tage = fo', 'ensors. fan', 'value in', 'nter(self,'. The main title 'ComBank HACKATHON CHALLENGE' is prominently displayed in white and green, with the tagline 'Unleash your creativity' below it. The challenge objective is 'Develop a GPT model for Singlish Language to revolutionize customer engagements'. The prize structure is highlighted in orange boxes: 'GRAND PRIZE USD 10,000/-', '2nd Prize : USD 5,000/-', and '3rd Prize : USD 2,000/-'. Registration details are listed: 'Registration : 14th to 31st May 2024' and 'Submit Prototypes : By 30th June 2024'. The event is 'OPEN FOR - UNIVERSITY STUDENTS'. The hosting platform is 'apix' and technical partners include Google, Huawei, and IBM. The Commercial Bank logo is at the bottom right. A small note '*Conditions Apply' is at the bottom left.
